If you stop to think about it you will understand that drugs can lose all their life and power. All the physician's skill and druggists' accuracy can be brought to nought by dead drugs. Dead drugs are really dead stock. Dead stock means dull trade. Our business wouldn't let us accumulate dead stock if we tried—and we're not trying. If you want live drugs come to the live store,

GRIEF DROVE HIM AWAY.

R. L Hendricks Abandons Business. Man Forced to Leave Town.

To the surprise of his many friends, Mr. Robert L Hendricks, one of Salem's leading merchants, closed his store this morning and turned his business over to the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company, leaving on the 10:30 train for the north. Mr. Hendricks told some of his friends that his business was in excellent shape and that other trouble was the cause of his action.

Upon learning of the absence of Mr. Hendricks and the cause of it, friends served notice upon the young man charged with being responsible for the trouble, to leave the city on the next train. This was done and he went away on the 5:30 train this evening

The above appeared in the News and Observer this morning as a special from Winston. Mr. Hendricks passed through Greensboro at noon yesterday enroute to Philadelphia. The "man in the case" was here last night. He was interviewed by a Telegram man and bitterly denied that there was any foundation in fact for the trouble. He also says he was not forced to leave Winston, but that he left of his own accord. That his visit to the house was merely a friendly call in response to an invitation extended by the woman, who, H says, visited his mother and sisters in Charleston during the gala week last year.

He made one or two conflicting statements, however. He told one man he left Charleston last Friday, to attend to a little business in Winston. To another he said he was on his way from New Jersey, where he spent the summer, to Charleston, and merely stopped over in Winston to see the boys.

A BUSY SCENE.

The Immense Amount of Improvement Work the Southern is Doing.

The V-shaped track of meadow land lying in the scope between the intersection of the Southern's Mt. Airy-Sanford line and the main line, a short distance southwest of the depot, presents a most animated appearance. A large force of men and mules are and have been for several days hauling dirt, plowing, dumping, handling crossties, putting down iron rails, building brick pillars, laying sewage pipes, etc.

A Telegram man strolled up there this morning and found the connecting link between the two railroads nearly completed. The new track leaves the old C. F. & Y. V road near the lumber yard of E. E Bain and running northwest, thence due west for probably two hundred yards, gradually rising higher, connects with the main line a short distance from the coal chute. The grading of the "link" is all finished, the crossties are laid and part of the rails have been fastened, so that in all probability when the Mt. Airy train arrives in the morning she will pause at the swhich, back up the new stretch of track and roll into the new depot.

Work on the immense fill-in for the locomotive yard and turn-table is steadily progressing, although it will be some time yet before this work is completed.

THE LEE INVESTIGATION

The Irish Evangelist Now on Trial for Immorality

The charges against Rev. J. W. Lee, the Irish evangelist, recently spoken of in the papers, are now being investigated by the quarterly conference of West Market street church. The conference committee is composed of Messrs W. G. Lakeley, M. S. Sherwood and E. L. Sides. The first session of the trial committee was held last night and will be continued tonight. The testimony is all in writing, there being no witnesses present to testify in the matter. Some of the evidence is in the form of depositions while part of it is open-hand writing.

Mr. Lee is in the city and has about recovered from his recent illness.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Telegram:

Kindly permit us to extend through your columns the cordial thanks for the many tokens of loving kindness and tender sympathy shown unto us in in our late bereavement. We have no vocabulary intense enough to express the great appreciation and sincere gratitude for the various actions, bespeaking for the love of our numerous friends, which endeavored to scatter rays of sunshine into our sorrowful gloom. May He, who has promised to reward even a cup of cold water in His name, visit them all with his royal mercy and boundless goodness, and reward them more than ten thousandfold for what they have done unto the least of His followers, is the ardent wish and cordial intercession of

Yours in sincerety and truth

THE BOERS ARE PREPARED

For the Consequences and Will Early Open Hostilities.

DREYFUS IS A FREE MAN

He Will Devote the Rest of His Life to the Recovery of His Honor. Will Not Live Long.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Sept. 20—The Morning Post's Pietermaritzburg correspondent telegraphs that letters to Johannesburg from Pretoria say that the Boers are bent on war and that nothing else can be expected. They are prepared for the consequences and all arrangements are complete. They only await a two days' rain for the beginning of hostilities.

DREYFUS LEAVES HIS PRISON.

Rennes, Sept. 20—Dreyfus at three o'clock this morning left the prison and proceeded to Vern, where he took a train bound for Nantes. His departure was completely unnoticed. He looked very pale and smiled as he saw and embraced his wife, who came to meet him. His departure at such an early hour was unexpected.

TELEGRAMS OF CONGRATULATION.

Paris, Sept. 20—Dreyfus' pardon will be published in tomorrow's Gazette. The Figaro says that Dreyfus will devote the rest of his life to the recovery of his honor, though it is afraid he will die before it can be accomplished.

Mme. Dreyfus has received hundreds of telegrams of congratulations, mostly from Great Britain and the United States.

CARLISLE AND BRYAN.

Attempt Will be Made to Have Them Confront Each Other.

Louisville, Sept. 19—An effort will be made by prominent democrats to induce ex-Secretary Carlisle to come to Kentucky and tell on the stump facts concerning Goebel's compact with him to send a sound money delegation to the Lexington and National democratic conventions. The plan is to have Carlisle come here October 3rd, when Bryan is booked to speak, and ask for a division of time. Then Carlisle will ask Bryan what he thinks of the trade Goebel made with him (Carlisle.) Goebel has denied the charge in toto. Goebel's answer was wired Carlisle, and he was asked for a rejoinder. His answer was that it would come later. Tonight it was announced that Carlisle had written a lengthy statement on Goebel's proposition to stifle the silver sentiment in Kentucky and defeat Bryan delegates and Blackburn for senator.

We had just walked across the street this morning, took a seat on a goods box and commenced to talk business to a friend when suddenly—and I mean suddenly—our seat went from under us, a rough, dirty looking paw was shoved into our face, a glittering piece of steel came to view, and before we had time to realize what was happening or what our antagonist was, something came, as if from the clouds, toppling over us with all force. I will not reveal its name, but leave it to you to guess. May my readers be spared such an experience!

SETTLE MISREPRESENTED.

The Asheville Gazette Quotes Him as Modifying His Views

ON THE AMENDMENT QUESTION.

The Ex-Congressman Repudiates the Interview and Says he Made Certain Requests of the Editor.

Asheville, Sept. 19—This morning's Asheville Gazette prints the following:

"Hon Thomas Settle, former representative in congress from the fifth district of this state, is in Asheville. Mr. Settle has been quoted as in favor of the constitutional amendment, limiting the suffrage. The Gazette is able today to state that the newspapers that have published alleged interviews with Mr. Settle to this effect have uttered only part of the truth. Mr. Settle is in favor of the amendment for a reason these newspapers cannot publish and at the same time make from Mr Settle's position the kind of political capital they want. Few persons in the state or anywhere else of intelligence sufficient to read the fifth section of the proposed amendment—the lineal descendant clause, which is used as a 'blind' to deceive illiterate white voters—and also the fifteenth amendment of the United States constitution—are ignorant of the fact that the fifth section is unconstitutional, and that the effect of the amendment, if passed, would be to place the uneducated whites and blacks in the same boat, disfranchising both. This is the view of Hon Thomas Settle. For the reason that he is in favor of the fourth section of the amendment, which makes no discrimination between the races, but is an educational qualification for all voters, and is therefore constitutional, and the additional reason that he regards the fifth section, that attempts to discriminate between the races, granting privileges to one that it withholds from the other, as in violation of the constitution of the United States, making it therefore a null and void portion of the amendment, he has declared himself in favor of the measure. Mr. Settle expresses himself as follows:

"'I am in favor of the amendment because I favor an educational qualification. I believe the result of the amendment will be to eliminate ignorant and vicious voters, both white and black. The fifth section of the law is unconstitutional and will be thrown out. I have no doubt of that. This will leave the fourth section of the amendment in force, and no illiterate person can then vote, whatever his race or color.'

"Mr. Settle went somewhat farther than this in a conversation yesterday and said that in his opinion the effect of the amendment, as applied to illiterates of both races, will be more strongly felt by the whites than by negroes, for the reason that the negroes are largely residents of towns, where the facilities for obtaining an education are good, while the illiterate whites are mostly farmers, living in localities where it is difficult to secure an education."

ENTIRELY UNAUTHORIZED

Former Congressman Settle, whose declaration in favor of the amendment caused a sensation in political circles throughout the state, told The Citizen this morning that no such interview as that reported in The Gazette ever occurred. Here are the facts: Sunday James E Norton, of The Gazette, called on Mr. Settle and requested an interview on the amendment. The position taken by Mr. Settle, Mr Norton said, had embarrassed the republicans of the west, and they would be glad to have Mr. Settle modify the views he had expressed on the question.

To this Mr. Settle replied that he had seen the newspaper articles regarding his position, and if there had been any reason for a modification of his views he would have made it at the time of the publication. He therefore declined to modify, saying that at the proper time and in the proper way he would set forth his views more fully, regarding this time as too early to begin the discussion.

In addition to this, Mr. Settle expressly requested The Gazette editor to refrain from using his name in the paper, and the editor left Mr. Settle with the understanding that he would comply with the request.

"I told Mr. Norton," said Mr Settle, "that at the proper time I would gladly furnish him with a written statement of my position and my reasons for taking it. He said he would be glad to get it, but did not know that he could publish it if it militated against his position."

"This conversation," Mr. Settle added, "took place in the presence of Mr. Tench Coxe."

It seems the Benbow House deal continues in statu quo, no appparent progress having been made in the negotiations. There seems to be a hitch somewhere.

THE CHEROKEE STRANDS.

It is Believed With Favorable Winds She can be Floated.

Pasque Island, Mass, Sept. 19—The Clyde Line steamer Cherokee, Captain McKee, bound from Jacksonville, Fla. for Boston, with a large cargo of miscellaneous freight and six passengers, went ashore on the southeast end of Naushon Island, in Vineyard Sound, shortly afternoon today in a dense fog, staving a large hole in the forward part of her hull. Her number two hold is full of water, but the full extent of her damage cannot be ascertained until she is floated.

Her after compartments remain free from water, owing to the tight bulkheads, and her engines remain in good working order. The vessel is nearly on an even keel, heading eastward, and perfectly easy. It is thought that with favorable winds she can be floated.

The passengers were taken off by the revenue cutter Dexter, which landed them at New Bedford, from which place they will proceed to Boston.

THE OTHER FELLOW'S OX.

A lot of negroes went among their northern friends to get work. The other day at Cartersville, Ill., their "northern friends" murdered five of them and wounded four others. Moreover, the mayor of Catersville tells the governor that the trouble is likely to continue just so long as there are any negroes at the mines.

So far as heard from, and as a consequence of the barbarity of her citizens, there has been no denunciation of the state of Illinois by the rabid newpapers of the north. Why are these "friends" of the colored man silent? When a negro meets death at the hands of a mob in the south, however black be his crime and however much he deserves his fate, there is an instant howl of "barbarity," "persecution," etc., from the south-haters north of the "line." In this case the negroes had committed no crime; they were only exercising their right to compete with the whites in the mine-labor.

The Raleigh News and Observer very pointedly suggests that "if it had happened in the south the president would have abolished the postoffice at the place of the riot, punishing alike the men who did the shooting and those who condemned it. But in Illinois. Well, it is the other fellow's ox gored."

It's a cold day in August when France hasn't got up some kind of sensation or scandal over which her population can go wild. If the several statesmen who are now on trial before the French Senate on the charge of treason, be guillotined, the incident will not arouse half the world-wide interest that the Dreyfus case created. Neither would the world care for the event, save as a mere matter of humanity. France has disgraced herself, and the dissolution of the republic would be looked upon by decent folks with more curiosity than sympathy.

Writing about the Vanderbilt family and the wealth of its various members, a correspondent of one of the great Chicago dallies says:

"George Vanderbilt's wealth is placed at $20,000,000. He is of a retiring disposition. He is the owner of Biltmore, the great country home in North Carolina. He spent several millions on the place, but is reported to have abandoned it on account of its isolation from the comforts of civilization."

What have the Asheville watch-dogs to say of this?

THE NEW COLLEGE YEAR.

With this month, with most of the colleges in North Carolina, a new year begins. A most gratifying beginning it is. Greensboro Female College, as has been stated, opened with a larger number of students than ever in its history. The same is true of Trinity and Wake Forest. The Baptist Female University at Raleigh began its first year with a larger patronage than its founders, projectors and builders ever hoped for. The A. and M. at Raleigh and the University are overcrowded, and Dr. McIver is looking for as many as can be accommodated at the State Normal and Industrial College.

And all this is gratifying. It is evidence of an awakening on the part of our people to the importance and necessity of educating the boys and girls. It shows that there is room for all the colleges we have, and more. There is a work for all of them to do, and they are doing it.

The Atlanta Journal says "our total export trade to the Philippines last year amounted to $404,000." At this rate it will take more than a hundred years of trade with the islands for the government to get back what cash it has already paid in trying to whip the Filipinos, and they are not half whipped yet.

The Apex News is booming Hon. E. W. Pou, of Johnston county for governor.

The Norfolk Landmark observes that Mr. Kipling's poem on the Transvaal difficulty has not been forthcoming.

We regret most deeply to hear of the trouble Mr. John Schenk has with his eyes. Of unusually bright mind, ambitious and successful in his chosen profession, it is a grievous trial. We do most earnestly hope that there may be some remedy found to restore his sight to full vigor and bring such a useful and promising career to its full fruition.

THE SITUATION IS GRAVE.

400 Cases of Fever to Date at Key West—The Mortality Low.

Washington, Sept. 19—The yellow fever situation at Key West is regarded as grave. Since the first case was reported about three weeks ago, the epidemic has been steadily growing until today there are almost 400 cases New cases are appearing at the rate of thirty a day, but the mortality is low. Fifty-four cases and two deaths were reported for Sunday and Monday. Attendant Hall, one of the marine hospital staff, developed the disease last night and he has been isolated. As Key West is situated below the frost line the epidemic will have to run its course. The marine hospital service has been directing its efforts to confining the epidemic to the island and has been rewarded with signal success. Only one infected person is known to have escaped, and he was discovered at Miami and isolated. He has since recovered. All the suspects at Port Tampa were placed in a detention camp, and Assistant Surgeon Trotter today reported that the camp would be closed on Wednesday as all suspects had been under observation ten days. None but known immunes are allowed to leave Key West direct and then only on certificate. Others who desire to leave must first go to the detention camp at Dry Torgugas. The treatment of the cases at Key West is entirely under the supervision of the Florida state board of health. The marine hospital service is simply enforcing quarantine regulations with a view to preventing the spread of the disease.

One new case of fever was reported to the surgeon general from New Orleans today. The same report stated that freight from New Orleans was undisturbed except in Texas which would not permit freight originating in New Orleans to pass through the state.

OWING TO LACK OF SHIPS

There Is No Satisfactory Assignment for Admiral Schley.

THE SITUATION IN ALABAMA.

Complicated Very Much by the Candidacy of Ex-Gov. Oates to Succeed Senator Morgan.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 20—Governor Lowndes, and other members of the Maryland delegation who were in the city Monday in the interest of Admiral Schley, and called at the executive mansion and the navy department, have returned home, and are not much pleased with the result of their intercession. While they expressed the hope that the president would assign the admiral to the command of a European squadron in lieu of assigning him to the command of the South Atlantic squadron which is looked upon by his friends as simply a chapter in the series of alleged persecutions to which the admiral has been subjected by the navy department officials, there is really but little hope that this will be done. The interview of the delegation with Assistant Secretary Allen, of the navy, shows plainly that the deparatment will not take this action It is held that there is no European squadron, and that owing to lack of ships it is impossible. The president received the delegation, including Governor Lowndes, with the greatest courtesy, and assured them of his friendliness for Admiral Schley, and stated that by the selection of the admiral for the South Atlanticsquadron, it was really intended to honor him. The president did not indicate that he would change the prospective orders of the navy department, but at the same time he left the committee with the idea that he would do whatever is right and proper in the case.

Admiral Schley himself, who arrived from New York Monday night, called at the white house Tuesday morning. He assured the president of his willingness to accept whatever assignment is given him, without protest. He was not aware of the intention of Governor Lowndes, and the other members of the Maryland delegation to intercede in his behalf, and had he been aware of the intention, it is doubtful if he would have permitted it.

Mr. Harry E. Swan, a well known young gentleman of this city, now private secretary to the Governor of Havana, General Ludlow, and Miss Carmela Troncoso, a pretty Cuban girl, who is much admired in Havana social cirles, were married Sept. 11th, at the Montserrate church, Havana. It is said the church was filled by a large and fashionable audience, friends of the young couple The bride and groom, who are highly thought of, received many valuable presents, among them being a handsome pair of bronzes from Mr. Swan's fellow clerks. The couple are expected to arrive in Washington, where the relatives of the groome reside, in a few days. They will stop over on their way from Cuba at New York to visit relatives for a few days before coming to the national capital. The bride will accompany her husband back to Cuba, when his official duties call him back to the capital.

The 150th anniversary of Alexandria will be celebrated on Thursday, October 12th. The committee arranging the program say that it will be well worth attending, and efforts are being made to secure co-operation from the national government, which it is thought will be readily given. The war department will order troops from Fort Myer to take part in the celebration, and the secretary of the navy will grant the request for some of the war vessels. President McKinley will be unable to attend the celebration, but he has assured Congressman Rixey, of the Alexandria district, Hon. Park Agnew, and others interested, that he will give every aid possible, and will co-operate in any manner possible which may be desired. The committee who were here the other day say that the success of the celebration is assured.

Among prominent naval officers in Washington is Admiral J. A. Howell, United States Navy. He will be in Washington city for several days, and while here will make his headquarters at the Ebbitt House, which is the usual stopping place for distinguished naval and army officers whenever they visit the national capital.

Alabama people say that the announcement of the candidacy of Ex-governor Oates, for senator, to succeed Senator Morgan, will complicate the situation in Alabama very much. Among the candidates announced for the place now are Senator Morgan, Ex-governor Oates, Governor Johnston and Representative Bankhead. The friends of the latter say in the event of a prolonged contest in the legislature he will stand a good show as a compromise candidate, as he is very popular with all factions in the state, and is held in high esteem by the people of Alabama generally.

Representative Jones, of Virginia, was in the city yesterday, having arrived Monday. He says that he is well satisfied with the senatorial outlook in the state, and also with the very cordial support he is receiving throughout the first congressional district which he represents.

The family of Mr. E. H. Kemper, of Alexandria, have returned home from an outing in the mountains of North Carolina.

R. L. VERNON, T. P. A., Charlotte, N. C.

She was the fond mother of a fine baby. But it was a crying baby. She unclothed it and looked for pins. Nothing was hurting it. She looked to the baby's food. It was sweet and wholesome. But the baby still cried and wailed. Then she called the doctor. He examined the child and said "starvation." "The child is crying for food." "But," said the mother, "it has all the food it will take." "The question of starvation" replied the doctor, "is not how much food is taken but how much is assimilated and goes to nourish the body."

Pain in the body is often only the outcry of starvation. You eat enough but the stomach is not doing its work, and the nervous system is starving. Put the stomach right and the pains will cease, together with the uncomfortable consequences of the condition. There is no medicine made which can equal Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the quickness of its action on the stomach. It cures diseases of the digestive and nutritive system, increases the action of the blood-making glands, and so induces a proper and perfect distribution of the necessary nourishment to blood and bone, nerve and muscle throughout the whole body. There is no alcohol, opium or other narcotic contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass., "as I firmly believe I should be in a very bad state now if I had not taken it. Prior to September, 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September, 1896, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September, 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

SCHLEY WILL COMMAND.

He Cheerfully Accepts the Offer of th South Atlantic Squadron.

Washington, Sept. 19—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley will succeed Rear Admiral Howison in command of the South Atlantic station. He called upon the president this afternoon and told him that he had no complaint to make, that he would cheerfully assume the duties of any post selected by the authority which it has been his pride to serve for forty-three years. Rear Admiral Schley was very reticent when he left the white house after his interview with the president and except to say that he always obeyed orders, would make no statement as to the interview and offer no comment upon the assignment to the command of the South Atlantic station. To the rear admiral's friends the president has said that he regards the station as of great importance especially at this time, in view of the situation in South Africa and the unsettled condition of affairs in some of the South American countries. Far from regarding the assignment as a slight, the president to Admiral Schley's friends he regarded it as a mark of distinction. It is possible in view of the importance attached to the station at this time that some additional ships will be assigned to the squadron which now consists only of the flagship Chicago, the Wilmington and the Machias.

TEACHERS WORK SIX HOURS.

Superintendent Mebane Replies to an Enquiry from Durham.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Mebane yesterday sent a reply to Y. E. Smith, of Durham, who wrote asking whether the "school day" of six hours included the 'recesses."

In his reply the superintendent informs the inquirer that the law means that the teachers in public schools shall do six hours of work, by teaching. That, if the six hours should be construed to include the recesses, then we might in some shools have four hours of school and work on part of teachers and two hours of recess, etc. There must be six hours of work put in by teachers in the public schools, the superintendent concludes.

Doctors Can't Cure It!

Contagious blood poison is absolutely beyond the skill of the doctors. They may dose a patient for years on their mercurial and potash remedies, but he will never be rid of the disease; on the other hand, his condition will grow steadily worse. S. S. S. is the only cure for this terrible affliction, because it is the only remedy which goes direct to the cause of the disease and forces it from the system.

I was afflicted with Blood Poison, and the best doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact, I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood remedy, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. I was disheartened, for it seemed that I would never be cured. At the advice of a friend I then took S. S. S., and began to improve. I continued the medicine, and it cured me completely, building up my health and increasing my appetite. Although this was ten years ago, I have never yet had a sign of the disease to return.

W. E. NEWMAN, Staunton, Va.

JOE LEE.

TRIED TO END HIS LIFE

Because of Ill-Luck in His Suit for the Hand of a Young Lady;

Either on account of disappointment in love or because of his failure to borrow some money he wanted, Thomas Roach, a young man living several miles from Hillsboro, yesterday drank an ounce of laudanum at Hillsboro and tried to die. But he was soon taken in charge by a physician and several citizens and brought around all right after several hours' hard work.

Roach was drinking hard, complaining of his ill-luck in his suit for the hand of a young lady of his acquaintance and trying to borrow $100 Failing to get the money he bought an ounce of laudanum, turned the bottle up and drank it, remarking that he guessed that would end all his troubles. Then he got on his mule and started home. He had not gone far when the drug made him unconscious and he tumbled off in the road, where he was found later.

He was taken to a physician, beaten, walked and all sorts of means resorted to to prevent death. After several hours' work he was able to be taken home.

The Star of Hope Has Risen.

The gaunt form of adversity has appeared in the land and cast its lengthening shadow of despondency; troubles have been multiplied and heaving sighs have rumbled through the country. With downhill alacrity our fondest hopes have passed away, and into the misty haze of the unreal have our ambitious dreams been dissolved Grim despair has opened his hollow jaws and scooped us into his cavernous vaults. But, yet again shall all these calamitous things pass as a tale that is told, for even now is the sun of pleasure casting his ambitious rays 'oward our horizon, and when he breaks above the cloud line our troubles will melt as the morning dew. Joy shall hold high carnival, and forgetfulness shall assuage the stings of former woes Ring the joy bells, clang loud the cymbals of pleasure, smite the soft-toned lyre of happiness, and twist the tail of trouble as it gallops into the limbo of obscurity; too long already has it held us captive to its will. Watch for the cloudburst of sunshine—the circus is in the land, not here yet, but within the bounds of the commonwealth.

Once again come the greatest aggregations on earth; once again shall we behold the plenteous pantaloons of the clown and rapturously drink from his fountain of antediluvian wit. His fun shall be fun afresh, although we have oft paid for it before. Again shall we see the gorgeous parade of greasy-robed knights and ladies and look with breathless anxiety at the serpent's sinewy coils around the ancient limbs of the fair young charmer. The fat lady will even again reward our search for the wonderful, and red lemonade will flow as free as water; of course it will. Oh! it staggers the mind to contemplate it all. Sound the loud timbrel, gather up the nickels and prepare to give the children a sight of the animals. Let joy be unconfined.—Monroe Journal.

A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea.

A prominent Virginia editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy Read his editorial. From the Times-Hillstille, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. Collector—"I hope it won't inconvenience you, sir, to give me the amount of our bill." Dedbroke—"Certainly not. The amount of that bill is $23. Glad to oblige you."

"My friend," said the caller, "on behalf of our society I am soliciting 25 cent subscriptions to enable us to wage war on the cigarette evil, and I felt sure we could rely on you in the battle to death." "Yes, I'll give no quarter," replied the business man promptly. "Good day, sir."

RHEUMATISM CATARRH

It is the deep seated, obstinate cases of Catarrh and Rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors and remedies have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the system the specific poison in the blood that causes Rheumatism and Catarrh. B.B.B. is the only remedy strong enough to search out the poison, not only in the blood, but the bones, mucous membrane and entire body, and eliminate or drive out the last vestige of the disease so there can never be a return of the symptoms. If you have been disappointed in sprays, liniments, medicated air, snuff, blood purifiers, Etc., don't give up hope but try B.B.B. (Botanic Blood Balm). WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 13.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Mrs. Gov. Scales left for Danville today.

R. P. Richardson, of Reidsville, was here today.

W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, passed through at noon.

Judge Thomas Fuller, of Raleigh, passed through today.

Prof. Charles L. Raper is spending a day or two in the city.

S. Porter Groves, a prominent attorney of Mt. Airy, is in the city today.

The autumnal equinox is due. Look out for rough weather for a few days.

O. O. Newlin returned from Graham today at noon, where he has been attending court.

Charles W. Petty and sister, Mrs. R. P. Fields, left today for Philadelphia and New York.

Willis Pool, formerly bootblack at the Benbow, will be tried this afternoon for retailing the ardent.

C. W. Petty and sister, Mrs. Fields, left today for Philadelphia. Mrs. Fields will probably go on to New York.

It is reported that G. W. Pritchett will move his office from the Richardson building to the one formerly occupied by the Odell Plumbing Co.

Deputy Sheriff White, of Forsyth, passed through at noon for Reidsville with one Davis, colored, who had escaped from the road gang of Rockingham county.

Messrs. Boyd & Waddell will soon move their insurance and real estate office into the Guilford Bank Building. It will be painted and papered and otherwise remodelled.

The Odell Hardware Company is still at work on their plumbing palace just south of their main building. Their porcelaine bath tubs are attractive enough to induce the most abandoned Dusty Roads or Weary Willie to take a bath regardless of the consequences.

Mr. John Schenck, it is reported, will return home in a few days. His physicians seem to think his nervous system has been so severely taxed that the trouble with his eyes is in a measure sympathetic. It is to be hoped that with absolute rest he will entirely be restored to health.

Rotten Mail Service.

A Greensboro gentleman who has been up in Davie county since the 25th of August, asked to have the Telegram sent to him at Mocksville. It was mailed regularly every day. He returned yesterday and tells us he did not receive a copy of the paper while gone. Such carelessness as that, it seems to us, is inexcusable. The papers for High Point, frequently, are delayed in getting there. There is gross negligence somewhere.

Stricken at the Phone.

Dr. W. B. Norment, a native of Lumberton, N. C., who has been practicing medicine in Rowland for several years, died at that place from congestion of the brain Monday night at 11 o'clock. He arose that morning in his usual health, and about 9 o'clock was standing at his telephone talking to a patient, when he was stricken speechless. He never rallied during the day.

McAdoo House Repairs.

Manager Perkins, one of the genial managers of the McAdoo House, reports that he will probably fix up rooms in the Grissom building until the addition adjoining Holton's drug-store can be built. The hotel, as stated sometime ago, will have a general overhauling outside and in.

Attention, Southsides.

A special meeting of South Side Hose Company, No. 4, will be held Thursday night, September 21st, at 8 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present, bids to be made for purchase of cart. By order of president.
